PRIVATE FULL DAY PENINSULA TOUR

Our interactive Cape Point tour to the south-western tip of the Cape Peninsula offers some of the most spectacular views in the world. The drive itself is picturesque, giving you the opportunity to feast your eyes on rugged coastlines and other untainted geographic landmarks and passes villages and small fishing communities.

Our Cape Peninsula tour begins with a drive to Cape Town followed by a scenic drive along the Atlantic coast, passing through the cosmopolitan suburbs of Sea Point and Camps Bay to Hout Bay via Chapman's Peak Pass. From there we travel to the Cape Point and Cape of Good Hope, a breath-taking rugged promontory. The Cape Point tour returns to Franschhoek by way of Simon's Town (penguins), Fish Hoek and Muizenberg, with a stop at Kirstenbosch National Botanical Gardens should time permit.

PRIVATE FULL DAY HERMANUS TOUR

This picturesque tour takes you over the mountains to the seaside town of Hermanus. Set between mountains and the sea, Hermanus is not only very striking but offers some of the greatest land based opportunities for whale watching in the world (August – November). Close sightings of the Southern Right whale are likely. On the drive back we follow the coastline, which gives further possibility of whale (and even dolphin) sightings. A stop is made at Stony Point, near Betty's Bay to see the penguin colony.
